Celebrity Chef Fabio Viviani Hosts 7th Annual United Food Bank Event in Plant City

Plant City, Florida — January 5, 2015 — The United Food Bank of Plant City will host their seventh annual Celebrity Chef event on Saturday, February 7, 2015 at the Hillsborough Community College Trinkle Center. Celebrity Chef will showcase the culinary talents of Fabio Viviani through an informative and entertaining cooking demonstration. Viviani is a restaurateur, a New York Times best-selling author and is best known for his appearances on the hit reality TV show, Top Chef where he earned the title of “Fan Favorite”.

The event will benefit the United Food Bank of Plant City whose vision is to stamp-out hunger in East Hillsborough County and raise the standard of living for the truly needy. The evening will include a three course dinner specially curated from the award winning cookbook “Fabio’s Italian Kitchen”, live entertainment where Viviani will interact with the audience through a live cooking demonstration and a silent auction with items including a dinner package for four at Viviani’s new restaurant Siena Tavern in Miami Beach, autographed copies of Viviani’s cookbooks and a set of his new signature cookware from Bialetti.

“This is our seventh year hosting Celebrity Chef and every year we’ve not only accomplished our fundraising goals, but continued to increase participation,” said Christine Miller, Director. “With the help of the community and local businesses, we anticipate our most successful event to date.”
